

MARSHA

I believe in building positive relationships with children and their families.

I enjoy having a hands on approach with the children and assisting in their physical needs with kai.

I believe early childhood is where a lot of life long practices are formed, and exploring healthy lifestyles and having a positive relationship with food is so important.