

RACHEL

As a teacher I believe all children are unique in different ways.

They are worthy of all opportunities regardless of gender, age or background.

I will encourage all children to explore their environment inside and outside enabling them to grow physically, emotionally, socially and spiritually.

I will ensure I create a safe space where children feel they are able to approach me for help support and comfort.