

CLAIRE

I strongly believe that each child is an individual and unique, and can learn at their own pace. For me to give each child that feeling of belonging, of being safe, valued and respected.

Encouraging each child to explore to their own potential and having fun along the way whilst learning. For me to provide a strong foundation in early childhood can set each child up in future years gives me the sense of job satisfaction.