

As part of our ongoing commitment to the Treaty of Waitangi and respecting the bi-cultural component of Te Whariki, when making the beds please make them the following way. This is out of respect and tikanga so that no child is put to put head to feet with another child. Please see diagram below. This also happens with the beds on the ground for the bigger children.

